

GPNB Response - Arthritis Society

1. What solutions would your party put in place to reduce wait times for joint replacements if elected as NB's next government.

A Green government would extend the hours operating theatres are available and make a concerted effort to attract and retain anesthesiologists, whose availability is often the constraint on access to surgery.